Police search Surrey house as teenager held over tube bomb

■ Dover arrest 'significant' says Rudd
■ Terror chief hints at wider conspiracy

By Mark Townsend
Home Affairs Editor

An 18-year-old man was being questioned by counter-terrorism officers last night after being arrested in Dover on the east of the Channel. Counter-terrorism officers in Surrey, London, have been alerted to a search of a house in the area.

The man, identified as 'John', was arrested after arriving at the airport in Dover on Saturday night. He was taken to a police station in Dover.

It was the first time since the 2015 London attacks that a man has been arrested at the airport in connection with a terrorism-related matter.

The man is being held in a police station in Dover. He is being held in connection with a terrorism-related matter.

Boris Johnson ought to be fired, angry Tories tell May

By Toby Shute, Michael Gove and David Halliday

Senior Conservative MPs have demanded Theresa May's resignation over her handling of the Brexit vote. They say she has lost the confidence of the party and the public.

The MPs say that May's government has failed to deliver on its promises and that she has lost the trust of the party and the public.

They say that May should be replaced by someone who can lead the party and the country in a more effective way.
